Letter of intent on Partnership and Cooperation

To consolidate and deepen the many years of existing friendly contacts and already established relationships the city of Sulmona / Abruzzo and the community Alsbach-Hähnlein Hessian mountain road intend to sign a twinning agreement.

Both municipalities are convinced that better understanding can be achieved through partnership relations between citizens and organizations. This serves the peaceful coexistence between individual nations on the way to the realization of the united Europe.

Within their powers and capabilities, the two municipalities will seek to develop relations in the humanitarian, cultural, economic, tourism and sporting fields.

These goals are to be achieved through the following activities:

- Mutual visits by delegations of both municipalities, organizations and associations
- Mutual student and student exchanges as well as other contacts of young people Partnership (friendship) between schools and training institutions, in particular to enable practical experience• cultural exchange (exhibitions, dance performances, theater, music, etc.)• Exchange of experience between the administrations of the two municipalities ;
- Tourist activities and sports competitions• Cooperation of libraries and museums• Cooperation in the field of economic development and the further development of infrastructure ;
- Exchange of information in the fields of agriculture and viticulture ;

Both cities undertake to financially support the relevant activities and encounters, as far as possible. They are coordinated through the local partnership organizations. Appropriate events provide early mutual information. By references in publications, at events and in public places should express the will of cooperation between the two cities.
